

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HONORING RICHARD DEUTCH

HON. PETER DEUTSCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. DEUTSCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate a distinguished citizen of South Florida, Mr. Richard Deutch. Richard Deutch's inspiring courage, innovative business career, and leadership within the medical community serve as an example for what one caring individual can do when they share their dreams with others. Sadly, Mr. Deutch passed away on April 19, 2001.

Born on April 18, 1926, Mr. Deutch was raised in Providence, Rhode Island and matriculated to Brown University at the age of 16 in 1942. Mr. Deutch earned his DDS degree from the New York University College of Dentistry in 1950, but not before proudly serving his country as a Naval Lieutenant Junior Grade during World War II.

Mr. Deutch moved to Miami, Florida in 1957 and practiced as a successful pediatric dentist for over 20 years. In 1978, Mr. Deutch innovated a still-thriving chain of dental offices within retail department stores throughout South Florida. A compassionate man, he believed that quality dentistry should be affordable and available to every family. Not only did the convenience of Deutch's locations make a difference, but his willingness to keep his offices open long hours and weekends opened the doors for countless hard-working parents to attain quality care for their children.

Mr. Deutch's tremendous capacity for leadership amongst his peers was shown in countless dental, civic and philanthropic organizations. Mr. Deutch was on staff at St. Francis and North Miami General hospitals, and served as Chief of the Department of Pediatric Dentistry at Mt. Sinai Medical Center. Mr. Deutch was a fantastic teacher and found great satisfaction in his teaching position at Mt. Sinai Medical Center, a non-profit teaching hospital. As the President of Mt. Sinai's Sustaining Board of Fellows, a Founder and Life-Trustee at Mt. Sinai, a former Trustee of Temple Israel of Greater Miami, and president of Westview Country Club for six years, Mr. Deutch never ceased giving his time and effort to improve the health and well being of the South Florida community.

Patient and kind, Mr. Deutch will no doubt be missed the most by his loving wife of 46 years, Felicia, as well as by their children and grandchildren. However, he will also be long remembered by the unending list of the South Florida families, patients, and students he helped throughout his life.

RECOGNIZING HIYAMA FARMS

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Hiyama Farms for being named Industry of the Year. The Fowler Chamber of Commerce will present the award to Hiyama Farms at Fowler's annual Community Recognition Banquet.

Hiyama Farms is truly a family operation. Kazuo and Edith Hiyama purchased 20 acres of vines in Eastern Fowler during the 1930's. Over the years the farm has gradually grown, increasing their acreage and focusing on growing tree fruit. The farm currently produces Zante currant raisins, cherries and tree fruit. Howard, the son of Kazuo and Edith, operates the farm with the help of his sons, Darren and Gene, and his brother Dean Hiyama.

Hiyama Farms is one of the original growers to associate with the Fowler Packing Company and they share many of their innovative farming inventions with them. Kazuo invented agricultural equipment called "automatic movable platforms." His invention greatly improved pruning and thinning of fruit trees. Before the advent of mechanized farming, Hiyama Farms utilized "dried on the vine," mechanical raisin harvesters, and other efficient farming practices. The Hiyama sons' current goal is to continue to improve the mechanization of the farm. These innovative farming methods singles out Hiyama Farms of Fowler as a leader in agriculture.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Hiyama Farms for their Industry of the Year Award presented by the Fowler Chamber of Commerce. I urge my colleagues to join me in wishing the Hiyama family and Hiyama Farms many more years of continued success.

CELEBRATING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF SISTER EYMARD GALLAGHER, PRESIDENT OF MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

HON. JAMES P. MORAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, It is with great pleasure that I rise today to honor Sister Eymard Gallagher, who has served as President of Marymount University, located in Arlington, Virginia, since 1993. During her tenure as President, Sister Gallagher has focused her efforts on ensuring that Marymount University becomes recognized as one of the premier higher learning institutions in the Washington metropolitan area, a goal that has been achieved time and time again.

One of Sr. Gallagher's many accomplishments includes the establishment of the new University Center, named in honor of Ms.

Rose Bente Lee, a generous benefactor, which was constructed and dedicated in 1999. Sr. Gallagher also helped to establish the Marymount University Center for Ethical Concerns, which provides a forum for both students and faculty members alike to exchange ideas and concerns about ethical issues facing society. It also helps to foster an understanding and create a dialogue among students, faculty members and visiting scholars. Since its inception, the University Center for Ethical Concerns has hosted national conferences on numerous issues including Cyber Ethics, Sweatshop Labor, and Managing Health Care Costs.

Sr. Gallagher also led the festivities last year when Marymount University had the distinct honor of marking its 50th Anniversary. Through her leadership and innovation, Marymount University has also launched the program, the "Educator to Educator Initiative", designed to provide technology training to teachers in the Northern Virginia area. This important educational initiative will enable teachers at collaborating schools with the resources, materials and technical assistance needed to enrich classroom teaching in computers and technology. Sr. Gallagher has always recognized the fact that technology has become increasingly important in our country and to complete in the world-wide market. The "Educator to Educator Initiative" program provides students with the opportunity to utilize technology effectively to enhance their learning process.

In addition to Sr. Gallagher's achievements on the campus of Marymount, she has also provided leadership to the regional community, serving as a member of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and its Potomac Conference and Workforce Availability Task Force. Sister Gallagher also serves on the boards of the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce; the Northern Virginia Business Roundtable; the Information Technology Association of America Foundation; and First Virginia Bank. Virginia Governor James Gilmore has also appointed Sr. Gallagher to the e-Communities Task Force of the Governor's Commission on Information Technology.

I am very proud, Mr. Speaker, that I have been given the wonderful opportunity to honor such a wonderful community leader as Sister Eymard Gallagher. On June 30th of this year, Sister Eymard Gallagher will say goodbye to Marymount University, its faculty and its students. Though she will no longer serve as President of Marymount, she will forever be linked to the University for her leadership and dedication, the perfect example of a true community leader. She embodies the best in the rich tradition of Catholic higher education in America. I wish Sister Eymard Gallagher all the best as she continues on her path of benefiting the lives of others.

HONORING JACOB J. MARKS

HON. PETER DEUTSCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. DEUTSCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Jacob J. Marks, a distinguished citizen of Pembroke Pines, FL who proudly served his nation and his community. Mr. Marks, who unfortunately passed away on April 21, 2001, was an inspiring leader who left a legacy of diligence and devotion for his entire community.

Born in 1921 in Philadelphia, PA, Mr. Marks was raised and educated in Pittsburgh. He attended the University of Pittsburgh where he met his wife, Harriet. In 1941, Mr. Marks joined the U.S. Marines and courageously served his country until the end of World War II. He fought in the Battle of Iwo Jima and was there when the United States flag was raised on Mount Suribachi. He was always proud to say that the official flag was raised only ten feet from his foxhole. Following his military service, Mr. Marks worked as a draftsman at Blaw Knox, a Pittsburgh engineering company where he remained until he moved to Pembroke Pines, FL in 1984.

After moving to Florida, Mr. Marks became involved in numerous civic and community organizations. Residents immediately recognized the value of his enthusiasm for and commitment to his community; characteristics which made him a natural leader. Loyal and responsive to the needs of his fellow veterans, Mr. Marks served as the Commander of the Jewish War Veterans, Post 177. As treasurer of Pembroke Pines Concerned Citizens, Mr. Marks worked diligently on numerous issues affecting the well being of his community. In his position as Director Emeritus of the Pembroke Pines Democratic Club, he was active in voter registration and community organizing. In addition, he was recently elected as the vice chairman emeritus of the Century Pines Jewish Center Board of Trustees. Always combining his energy with his compassion, he participated in annual charity events such as walkathons to raise money for medical research and disease awareness.

In sum, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Marks was a wonderfully caring man whose energetic devotion to Pembroke Pines made him a true community leader. While we mourn his passing, Mr. Marks' legacy of community enrichment will be treasured by current and future generations of Pembroke Pines.

HONORING MRS. JANE B.
GARRISON

HON. JACK KINGSTON

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a woman from my district whose hard work and leadership are rivaled by only a few. This woman, Mrs. Jane B. Garrison, has dedicated the past eight years to the Safe Kids of Savannah Coalition and to the prevention of unintentional injury to children, the number one killer of children. Her hard work has, indeed, made my hometown, Savannah, Georgia, a safer place for children.

Working as the Coalition's Coordinator, Jane Garrison has made Safe Kids of Savannah a truly successful organization. She has been the driving force behind its many charities and functions. Because of Mrs. Garrison, Safe Kids of Savannah has been given many awards, including the 1994 Outstanding Health Promotion Program from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the 1995 SAFE KIDS of Georgia Coalition of the Year and the 1996 Outstanding Coalition of the National SAFE KIDS Campaign.

Mrs. Garrison has quietly been an outstanding supporter of protecting and promoting the welfare of children in Savannah since she moved there in 1985. Her other achievements include: the establishment of Boy Scout Troop #57 on Skidaway Island; Chairman of Lifeline of Children, Inc. (a volunteer group that works with the Chatham County DFCS Department to prevent child abuse and neglect); most recent former Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Chatham County DFCS; and recipient of the Richard A. Schieber, MD Award for 2001 from SAFE KIDS of Georgia, as an outstanding SAFE KIDS Coordinator.

I think it is only fitting, Mr. Speaker, to add a prayer for the children in honor of Mrs. Garrison's hard work and the SAFE KIDS of Savannah's 10th Anniversary Celebration. This prayer, taken from the SAFE KIDS of Savannah Coalition's 1999-2000 Annual Report, was adapted from Ina J. Hughes by the Children's Defense Fund. It is entitled, Lest We Forget: A Prayer of Responsibility for Children

WE PRAY FOR CHILDREN
Who bring us sticky kisses and fistfuls of dandelions,
Who hug us in a hurry and forget their lunch money.

WE PRAY FOR CHILDREN
Who never get dessert,
Who do not have any rooms to clean up,
Whose pictures are not on anybody's dresser,
Whose monsters are real.

WE PRAY FOR CHILDREN
Who throw tantrums in the grocery store
and pick at their food,
Who squirm in church and scream in the phone,
Whose tears we sometimes laugh at and whose smiles can make us cry.

WE PRAY FOR CHILDREN
Whose nightmares come in the daytime,
Who are not spoiled by anybody,
Who go to bed hungry and cry themselves to sleep,

Who live and move, but have no being
WE PRAY FOR CHILDREN
Who want to be carried, and for those who must,

For those we never give up on and for those who do not get a second chance,
For those we smother . . .
And for those who will grab the hand of anybody kind enough to offer it.

WE PRAY FOR YOUR CHILDREN, O GOD
May we, ourselves, be an answer to prayer.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to speak on behalf of a loyal servant of God; a woman whose efforts keep children alive and healthy. Thank you for your dedication Mrs. Garrison, you keep children's dreams alive. God bless these children and Mrs. Jane Garrison for helping them.
